(a) approved and passed by a simple majority of Guild Council; and
(b) referred to either a general meeting or a referendum and passed by a simple majority, before being adopted by the Guild.

3.1.5 Any proposed changes to the voting membership of Guild Council that are approved and passed in accordance with Regulation 3.1.4 will take effect from the 1 December following the approval of the changes.

3.1.6 All members of Guild Council retire from membership and vacate their official position on 30 November in each year.

3.1.7 The Guild Council has the power to declare vacant (by a simple majority of votes) the position of any member of the Guild Council (other than that of the student member of the UWA Sports Council) who has been absent without apology for two consecutive Guild Council meetings or without leave of absence granted on the motion of the Guild Council.

3.1.8 Any member of the Guild Council whose position is declared vacant under Regulation 3.1.7 is not eligible for membership of the Guild Council until after the expiration of one year from the date on which their position was declared vacant by the Guild Council.

3.1.9 Any member or standing invitee of the Guild Council (other than the Immediate Past President) may resign his or her position by giving written notice to the Secretary of their intention to resign and their resignation will take effect upon the date of its acceptance by the Guild Council.

3.1.10 No member of Guild Council who resigns his or her position under Regulation 3.1.9 may stand for election to that same position in a subsequent Guild election.

3.2 Guild Policy

3.2.1 The policies of the Guild are made by the Guild Council.

3.2.2 Guild Council may adopt (by a simple majority) policy on any issue that is covered by Clauses 2 and 3 of Statute 20 - "The Objects of the Guild".

3.2.3 Policy enacted under these Regulations remains in force until it is specifically rescinded or amended by resolution of Guild Council.

3.2.4 Policies passed by the Guild Council do not automatically lapse on the 30th November in any year.

3.2.5 Amendments to Regulations 3.2.1, 3.2.2, 3.10.2, 3.10.3 and 3.10.4 must receive the approval of a majority of ordinary members present and voting before coming into effect.

3.2.6 The Standing Orders of the Guild shall be rules made by Guild Council to govern the conduct of meetings, and shall be kept by the Guild Secretary.

3.3 Guild Council Meetings

3.3.1 Ordinary Meetings

3.3.1.1 One ordinary general meeting of the Guild Council is held monthly from February to December inclusive.

3.3.1.2 A schedule of ordinary meetings of Guild Council is set in December for the following year.

3.3.1.3 The first meeting of the reconstituted Guild Council in each year is held within the first two weeks of December and at least seven working days' notice of the meeting is given.

3.3.2 Special meetings

3.3.2.1 Special meetings of the Guild Council are held from time to time as the Guild Council or the Executive chooses or within ten days of the receipt by the Guild Secretary of a written request for a special meeting of the Guild Council signed by three Guild Councillors.

3.3.2.2 At least three University working days notice of every special meeting of the Guild Council must be given to all Guild Councillors unless they agree to accept a lesser period of notice.

3.3.2.3 A petition in writing may be made by a minimum of seven Guild Councillors to the Guild Secretary stating that a special meeting will not be held on the date specified in the original notice of special meeting but will be held seven days after that date.

3.3.2.4 If such a petition is received by the Guild Secretary, the Secretary will promptly circulate an amended notice of the special meeting to all Guild Councillors advising of the revised date.

3.3.3 All meetings

3.3.3.1 A meeting of Guild Council will not be held on the same calendar date as an ordinary meeting of the Senate, Academic Board or Academic Council of the University.

3.3.3.2 A quorum for a meeting of the Guild Council is one half of the voting membership, at least two of whom must be members of the Guild Executive.

3.3.3.3 The Guild Council may from time to time adjourn any meeting or debate to a future sitting.

3.3.3.4 Subject to these Regulations, all meetings of the Guild Council are conducted in accordance with the procedure set out in the standing orders of the councils of the Guild.

3.3.3.5 No proceedings of any Guild Council meeting are invalidated solely by reason of:
   (a) any defect in the election or appointment of any of its members;
   (b) there being any vacancy in the membership of the Guild Council at the time of such proceedings; or
(c) any person having failed to receive proper notice of the meeting.

3.4 Proxies
3.4.1 A Guild Councillor who is unable to attend a Guild Council meeting may assign proxy voting rights to another ordinary member.
3.4.2 Proxy votes must be in writing and signed and dated by the Guild Councillor who is assigning proxy voting rights.
3.4.3 An ordinary member may not hold proxy voting rights on behalf of a particular Guild Councillor more than once in any calendar year.

3.5 Minutes
3.5.1 On the first University working day following a Guild Council meeting, the Secretary will compile a record of all resolutions passed and distribute them to the Guild Councillors and subsidiary council executive members.

3.6 Guild Executive
3.6.1 The Guild Executive comprises:
(a) the President;
(b) the Vice-President;
(c) the Secretary; and
(d) the Treasurer.
3.6.2 The Guild Executive may, in any provision included in the Guild Statute Book, be referred to as the Guild Executive.
3.6.3 No person who is an undischarged bankrupt or has their affairs under liquidation by arrangement with their creditors is capable of being or continuing to be a member of the Guild Executive.

3.7 Guild Powers
3.7.1 The Guild Executive will determine any matters referred to it by the Guild Council and all matters which cannot reasonably be deferred until the following meeting of the Guild Council or the Guild Finance and Planning/Strategic Resources Committee.

3.8 Quorum
3.8.1 The quorum for a meeting of the Guild Executive is three.

3.9 Frequency of Meetings
3.9.1 The Guild Executive will meet at such times and places as the President may from time to time decide.
3.9.2 The Executive is responsible for the timely circulation of the agenda for all Guild Council meetings.

3.10 General Regulations
3.10.1 Where the Regulations require a matter to be dealt with by any subsidiary body or committee of the Guild, and where such a matter cannot be reasonably deferred until the next meeting of such a body or committee, the Guild Executive may determine the matter.
3.10.2 The Guild Executive may determine an interim policy where no policy of Guild Council exists.

3.10.3 Any interim policy determined by the Guild Executive will automatically lapse upon the date of the next Guild Council meeting unless the interim policy is specifically ratified by that meeting of Guild Council.

3.10.4 Lapsed interim policy will not be readopted by the Guild Executive, either in style or substance.

3.10.5 The Guild Executive must, on recommendation of Guild Education Council, determine the allocation and distribution of annual grant monies to the faculty societies.

3.10.6 The Guild Executive may, during any year, decide to conduct the annual University Procession (‘Prosh’), and will appoint one or more directors for this purpose together with:
(a) a committee to assist the director or directors of Prosh in the organisation and running of Prosh; and

6.8.2.4 In the event that at any time the positions of any of the permanent Guild staff positions, that are specified as standing invitees of the Student Services

Comment [CB37]: This committee is a merger of the current Student Services, Media, Memberships, Events and Student Assist Committees. For the full rationale see briefing paper ‘Review of Committees’. The basic premise is that many of these committees are defunct and an integrated approach is needed towards student services.

Comment [CB38]: This provides flexibility for working groups whilst also giving Executive Management Committee the power to ensure that the aim of a streamlined committee structure is not compromised.

Comment [CB39]: Previously this was the Vice-President. However, greater flexibility aligns with the integrated structure. Under the new system there will be three strategic management committees with three executive spots - ie one each.
6.128.2.5 The chair of the Student Services Committee is elected by Guild Council at the December Guild Council meeting of each year from amongst its membership.

6.2.6 If the positions referred to as standing invites of the Committee do not exist, then the person occupying the nearest equivalent position is invited to attend the Student Services Committee.

6.128.2.56 In relation to 6.12.2.4, the nearest equivalent position is determined by the Personnel Board (as set out in the Guild Enterprise Bargaining Agreement) in its absolute discretion.

6.8.3 Quorum

6.128.3.1 The quorum for a meeting of the Student Services Committee is four, three of whom must be Guild Councillors.

6.8.4 Frequency of meetings

6.128.4.1 The Student Services Committee meets once every calendar month except for January.

6.128.4.2 At least three University working days notice of a meeting is given to members.

6.89.6 Media Policy

6.89.6.1 The Guild Media Policy is a guide for the production of publications of the Guild with the exception of Prosh, which has its own editorial policy set by the Guild Council.

6.89.6.2 All members and employees of the Guild involved in the production of publications of the Guild must comply with the Guild Media Policy.

6.89.6.3 The Guild Media Policy includes the following matters:

(a) “Pelican” as a student newspaper published by students for students;
(b) that the Guild condemns censorship in all areas of expression and supports freedom of speech and expression;
(c) that those criticised in any publication of the Guild have the right of reply in a publication of the Guild;
(d) that the Media Officer and Pelican Editor must:
   (i) present all issues on campus in a balanced manner; and
   (ii) encourage student contributions to publications of the Guild;
(e) that Pelican, the Guild diary and directory, the orientation handbook and such other publications of the Guild as the Guild Council determines, contain a disclaimer stating that the views contained in the publications are not necessarily those of the Guild or of the Guild Council;
(f) that Guild Council, individual members of Guild Council, other elected officers of the Guild and employees of the Guild will not intervene in the production of publications of the Guild except through the procedures set out in these Regulations;
(g) material will not be published in a publication of the Guild if it is found by the solicitors advising the Guild to be defamatory or in breach of anti-discrimination laws;
(h) material published in Pelican must be cited as having been written by:
(i) a student of the University who is a member of the Guild;
(ii) an employee of the Guild, the topic of their submission being relevant to the Guild’s role in the University community; or
(iii) a fully identified author of the material; and
(j) all decisions relating to publications and media should be made with reference to Guild policies on anti-discrimination, which shall be drafted by the Equity & Diversity Committee, approved by Guild Council and recorded in the Guild Statute book.

executive officer of the University society, apply to become an affiliated society with any subsidiary council (excluding the Education Council).

11.1.2 A University society cannot become an affiliated society where the constitution of such University society contains any disciplinary measures relating to non-participation in any sort of initiation ceremony.

11.1.3 The subsidiary council must review and approve the rules of the University society applying to be affiliated with it before approving the affiliation of the University society itself.

11.1.4 Subject to Regulation 11.1.2, a subsidiary council may approve a University society to be affiliated with that subsidiary council.

11.1.5 The approval of an application made by a University society to become affiliated with a subsidiary council is recorded as soon as practicable by the Relevant Subsidiary Council/Guild Secretary in a register of affiliated societies.

11.1.6 Affiliation with a subsidiary council is deemed to commence from the date upon which the record is made in the register of affiliated societies.

11.1.7 Any alterations to the rules of an affiliated society must be approved by the relevant subsidiary council executive before they come into force.

11.1.8 No incorporated body is entitled to exercise any of the privileges or rights of an affiliated society under these Regulations:

(a) until it has agreed to comply with all provisions relating to affiliated societies included in the Guild Statute Book;
(b) unless the constitution and rules of the incorporated body includes a provision binding its members to comply with all provisions relating to affiliated societies included in the Guild Statute Book; and
(c) until the provision contemplated by (b) is approved by the Guild Statutes Governance Committee.

11.1.9 An affiliated society cannot become an incorporated body without the consent of the Guild Council upon the recommendation of the affiliated society concerned.

12.1.3 An affiliated society may elect to make a person who is or has been a member (under Regulation 12.1.1) an honorary life member or associate member of the affiliated society.

12.1.4 An honorary life member or associate member of an affiliated society may not hold an executive officer position nor exercise a vote.

12.1.5 Subject to these regulations, an affiliated society shall not discriminate against potential members who satisfy the requirements in 12.1.1, with the exception of faculty societies.

12.2 General Regulations

12.2.1 The Guild is only represented in sporting or other competitive activities by an affiliated society where:

(a) the relevant subsidiary council has consented to such representation; and

(b) those seeking to represent the Guild are members of that affiliated society.

12.2.2 Any person who participates in a sporting or non-sporting competition (other than intramural competitions) conducted by an affiliated society is deemed to be representing the Guild if such activity is:

(a) an inter-university competition; or

(b) in such other cases as the relevant subsidiary council may determine from time to time.

12.2.3 All affiliated societies must comply with the rules of the subsidiary council to which they are affiliated and the rules of the Guild included in the Guild Statute Book.

12.2.4 The executive officers and members of an affiliated society are jointly and severally responsible for compliance of their affiliated society with clause 12.2.3 and are liable for any non-compliance.

12.2.5 The affairs of all affiliated societies are conducted in accordance with the constitution and rules of the affiliated society and are subject to:

(a) the rules of the Guild included in the Guild Statute Book; and

(b) any resolution passed by the Guild Council or any subsidiary council to which the affiliated society is affiliated.

12.2.6 The Guild Council may suspend the rights and privileges attached to affiliation to a subsidiary council of an affiliated society for any period where that affiliated society has not complied with:

(a) the rules of the Guild included in the Guild Statute Book;

(b) the terms of any resolution passed by the Guild Council or any subsidiary council to which the affiliated society is affiliated; or

(c) any authorised requirements of the Finance and Planning Strategic...
12.2.7 An affiliated society may be disaffiliated by the relevant subsidiary council where the society:
(a) persistently breaches the rules of the Guild included in the Guild Statute Book which relate to its affiliation; or
(b) is repeatedly non-compliant with the terms of any resolution passed by the Guild Council or its subsidiary council, provided that the ordinary general meeting of the Guild Council immediately following a disaffiliation may reverse such a decision.

12.2.8 A University society may withdraw from affiliation with a subsidiary council upon the:
(a) University society submitting a recommendation to the relevant subsidiary council that has been approved by two successive general meetings of the University society, where such meetings are held at intervals of not less than one month; and
(b) relevant subsidiary council approving the request in clause (a).

12.2.9 An affiliated society may make rules for the proper conduct of its affairs and for the control of its property and any property of the Guild that the affiliated society controls.

12.2.10 Rules made by an affiliated society must be approved by the relevant subsidiary council.

13 FACULTY SOCIETIES

13.1 General Regulations

13.1.1 The Guild Council may register, as an additional faculty society, any society which:
(a) has, as its chief aim, the representation of students of the University by virtue of their membership of a University faculty, school or department;
(b) is directly associated with a University degree, having in its title the name of the faculty or school concerned; and
(c) does not unreasonably overlap with an existing faculty society registered with the Guild.

13.1.2 The registered faculty societies of the University are the:
(a) Agricultural Club;
(b) Architectural, Landscape and Fine Arts (ALFA) Students’ Association;
(c) Arts Union;
(d) Blackstone Society;
(e) Dental Students’ Society;

(g) Education Union;
(h) Health Science Society;
(i) Music Students’ Society;
(j) Science Union;
(k) University Engineers Club; and
(l) Western Australian Medical Student’s Society.
13.1.3 Notwithstanding the requirements of clause 13.1, Guild Council will consider on its merits each application for registration as a faculty society by a faculty or school.

13.1.4 Within the first three weeks of the start of first semester of the academic year, each faculty society will provide the Guild Executive with a copy of its budget for the current academic year together with its financial statements for the previous academic year.

13.1.5 All students included in a faculty may vote in an election held to fill a vacancy of an elected office of the relevant faculty society provided that the student is an ordinary member of the Guild.

13.1.6 Monies granted to Faculty societies by the Guild must only be applied for the purposes of providing amenities or services for students or for the development of cultural, social, sporting or recreational activities related to the University.

13.1.7 Faculty societies must not use any monies provided by the Guild for the purposes of making a gift.

13.1.8 Faculty societies must endeavor to represent all students within their faculty and, where appropriate, liaise with other relevant student societies and the Postgraduate Students Association.

14 DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

14.1 DISCIPLINE OBJECTS AND APPLICABILITY

14.1.1 The purpose of these Regulations is to inform students of behaviour which the Guild regards as misconduct, to implement fair and just procedures for dealing with cases of possible misconduct and to provide for the imposition of penalties for misconduct.

14.1.2 ‘misconduct’ means an act or omission of a Guild member or affiliated society which is prohibited by the Guild Rules;
   (a) ‘Guild Rules’ mean all provisions included in the Guild Statute Book

14.1.3 The Regulations must be read in conjunction with the Guild’s Policy on Discipline.

14.2 DISCIPLINE APPLICABILITY

14.2.1 Charges may be brought against affiliated societies (represented by up to two members of their executive) or against individual Guild members, and may be originated by any affected persons.

15 DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE AND PENALTIES

15.1 Discipline Procedure
15.1.1. Where appropriate, all potential allegations of misconduct shall first be dealt with through the relevant affiliated society’s internal disciplinary mechanisms.

15.1.2. Guild Council and sub-council members shall act as Disciplinary Officers in referring potential allegations of misconduct to the relevant sub-council president or to the Guild President for a decision to be made.

15.1.3. Alternatively, any affected persons may also refer potential allegations of misconduct to the relevant sub-council president or to the Guild President for a decision to be made.

15.1.4. After consideration, the relevant sub-council or Guild President may request that the matter be heard by the Discipline Panel.

15.1.5. If the relevant sub-council or Guild President makes a decision under section 15 and 16 of these regulations, any affected persons may request that the matter be heard by the Discipline Panel.

15.1.6. All requests for a matter to be heard by the Discipline Panel shall be directed to, and considered by the Governance Committee. The Committee shall deem whether the allegation of misconduct is of such a nature as to necessitate convening a Discipline Panel to hear the allegations.

15.1.7. Factors guiding the decision will be determined by the Guild’s Policy on Discipline.

15.1.8. The Governance Committee may also refer the allegation of misconduct to the University or to any other relevant authority if it deems the allegation to be outside its scope of objects.

15.1.9. The Governance Committee shall retain the discretion to dismiss frivolous or vexatious allegations of misconduct.

15.1.10. The Governance Committee shall retain the discretion not to deal with any allegations of misconduct until they have been properly progressed through the relevant escalation structures outlined in Regulation 15.1.

15.1.11. If deemed necessary under Regulation 15.1.6, the allegation of misconduct will be heard before a Discipline Panel according to the provisions in Regulation 16.

15.1.12. If the Governance Committee is satisfied that it would be impractical for a Guild Member or representative of an affiliated society to attend an interview or hearing required under these Regulations, the Committee must determine a fair alternative process to ensure that the affected party has an opportunity to present a case to the Discipline Panel.

15.2. Discipline Penalties

15.2.1. The penalties that may be imposed for misconduct are:

(a) a suspension or cancellation of Guild Membership and its associated rights and privileges;
disaffiliation or a temporary suspension of up to three months of an affiliated society;
compelling the resignation or removal of an executive officer, committee, or general member of an affiliated society;
a recommendation to the UWA Registrar or to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor that the person be expelled from, suspended for a specified period from the University;
probation, where any further breach of the grounds for discipline may result in further penalties;
suspension of permission to use some or all Guild facilities for up to twelve months;
suspension of all or certain categories of subsidies, loans, or awards for up to twelve months;

15.3. Notice requirements

15.3.1. A written notice required to be given to a Guild member under these Regulations may be—
(a) given to the Guild member in person;
(b) sent to the email address or fax number nominated by the Guild member;
(c) posted to the last address provided to the Guild Secretary as the Guild member’s place of residence.

15.3.2. A notice sent by email or fax—
(a) is taken to be given and received on the day it is sent;
(b) must be sent by post also.

15.3.3. A notice sent by post is taken to be given—
(a) three days after it is posted for addresses within Australia;
(b) seven days after it is posted for addresses outside Australia.

15.4. Costs

15.4.1. The relevant body may award the individual who is the subject of the hearing or appeal, the whole or part of the monetary costs which they have incurred in the hearing or appeal.

15.4.2. If the relevant body makes an award of costs, it will fix the amount payable and this amount will be paid to the individual out of Guild funds.

15.5. Interviews and Investigations

15.5.1. The Guild member must be given up to five days notice of any interview or investigation to be conducted in accordance with these Regulations and the Guild’s policy on Discipline in order to arrange for another person to accompany the Guild member to the interview.
15.5.2. A staff member may delegate to another person the investigative and interviewing role in any case of alleged misconduct but not the authority to make a finding.

16. DISCIPLINE PANEL

16.1. Role

16.1.1. The role of the Discipline Panel is to investigate all charges of contraventions of the Guild Rules referred by the Governance Committee, and to impose penalties described in these Regulations.

16.2. Membership

16.2.1. The Discipline Panel is convened at the discretion of the Governance Committee, and comprises:
   (a) A Guild Councillor selected by the Governance Committee as Chair
   (b) Two other Guild Councillors selected by the Governance Committee, at least one of whom must be a female;
   (c) The Human Resources Officer or, if they are not available, the Managing Director
   (d) One Student Assist Officer nominated by the Student Assist Manager

16.2.2. The Secretary is the Guild Human Resources Officer or the Managing Director.

16.3. Powers

16.3.1. The Discipline Panel may impose penalties for misconduct pursuant to Regulation 15.2.

16.3.2. All determinations of the Panel must be guided by the Guild’s Policy on Discipline.

16.4. Procedure

16.4.1. The quorum of a Panel hearing is four members of the Discipline Panel.
16.4.2. The Chair may require that a lawyer or a member of staff who is a legal practitioner or has a degree in law be invited at the discretion of the Chair to attend a meeting of the Panel to provide advice on matters related to process and procedure raised either by members of the Panel or by the relevant Guild member who is the subject of the appeal.
16.4.3. If the vote on whether or not a charge of misconduct has been proved is equally divided, the charge must be declared not to have been proved.
16.4.4. The Panel must deal with all the charges referred to it but—
(a) must not deal with several charges against a Guild member together or with charges against several Guild members together unless the charges arise out of instances of misconduct which are part of a series of—
   (i) instances of the same or a similar character; or
   (ii) acts or omissions in the pursuit of a common purpose;

(b) if the Panel decides at any stage before making known its decision that it should, in the interests of justice, not hear or not proceed further with any of the charges, another Panel must be convened to re-hear the matter within a period of 14 days;

(c) A Panel member shall notify the Panel Chair of any possible or potential conflict of interest as soon as reasonably possible;

(d) The Panel Chair shall take all steps necessary to avoid the conflict of interest, including replacing the Panel member with a new appointee.

16.4.5. In determining the time and date for a hearing before the Panel, the secretary must make all reasonable efforts to select a time and date which is convenient to the Guild member concerned.

16.4.6. A hearing must not be held more than 20 days after receipt of the charge to the Panel;

16.4.7. The secretary must give the relevant Guild member not less than ten working days' written notice of a hearing of the charge before the Panel.

16.4.8. The notice must contain particulars of—
   (a) the charge;
   (b) the time and place of the hearing; and
   (c) the individual’s rights under sub-regulation 16.4.10.

16.4.9. If, for any reason other than those set out in sub-regulation 15.1.12, the individual fails to appear at the hearing, the Board may, if it is satisfied that the individual has been given notice in accordance with these regulations and that the individual has not provided a valid reason for not attending, proceed with the hearing in the individual's absence.

16.4.10. During the hearing the Guild member is entitled—
   (a) to be represented by another person;
   (b) to be present with a representative throughout the hearing except when the chair and members of the Committee wish to confer privately among themselves or to consider their decision;
   (c) either alone or via a representative to call and examine witnesses, cross-examine witnesses and address the Committee;
   (d) to require that a Student Assist Officer be present.
16.4.11. The Panel is not bound but must wherever possible be guided by the Rules of Evidence.

16.4.12. The Panel decides its procedure including the order and the manner in which evidence may be called and addresses heard.

16.4.13. Hearings of the Panel are in private unless the individual charged elects that a hearing be open to other members of the Guild but—
(a) if charges against two or more individuals are being dealt with together before the Committee and any one of them elects a private hearing the hearing must be private; and
(b) the Panel may order that an open hearing be continued in private if in its opinion order cannot otherwise be maintained.

16.4.14. At every hearing the Panel has complete authority to keep order and may order the removal of any person for unruly conduct including the individual in respect of whom the hearing is taking place or the representative of such individual.

16.4.15. The secretary must place a record of every decision of a Panel on a central file designed for that purpose and on a confidential file for the individual concerned.

16.4.16. The secretary must within ten working days of the decision give the individual concerned a written notification of the decision including details of any penalty imposed.

14.1 Disciplinary Officers

14.1.1 The role of the disciplinary officers is to:
(a) enforce compliance with the Guild Rules; and
(b) refer contraventions of the Guild Rules to the Discipline Committee.

14.1.2 The Disciplinary Officers of the Guild comprise:
(a) Guild Councillors who are ordinary members;
(b) executive officers of the Societies Council, the Education Council and the Public Affairs Council; and
(c) members appointed by the Guild Council.

14.1.3 A member who impedes a disciplinary officer in the exercise of their role is liable to the penalties applicable to serious offences as set out in these Regulations.

14.1.4 If, in the opinion of a disciplinary officer, there is a serious contravention or persistent contraventions of the Guild Rules included in the Statute Book, the Disciplinary Officer may exclude the person or persons responsible for the contraventions from the buildings occupied by the Guild until the next meeting of the Disciplinary Committee.

15 DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE
15.1 Role

15.1.1 The role of the Discipline Committee is to investigate all charges of contraventions of the Guild rules or rules of any subsidiary council referred to under these Regulations, and to impose penalties described in these Regulations.

15.2 Membership

15.2.1 The Discipline Committee comprises:

(a) the President as Chair;
(b) the Secretary; and
(c) three Guild Councillors, at least one of whom must be a female.

15.2.2 The Secretary is the Executive Officer of the Discipline Committee.

15.3 General Regulations

15.3.1 The deliberations and decisions of the Discipline Committee are confidential.

15.3.2 Subject to these Regulations, the Discipline Committee decides its own procedure and may determine that the submission of evidence may be confidential.

15.3.3 Decisions of the Discipline Committee are subject to review by Guild Council.

15.3.4 Any person affected by a decision of the Discipline Committee may appeal to the Guild Council within fourteen days of the date of any decision.

15.3.5 Any subsidiary council or Guild committee which is granted power to make rules and impose fines for the breach of its rules or the Guild Rules, may refer any contravention of the rules to the Disciplinary Committee.

15.3.6 Before any investigation is commenced by the Discipline Committee, the executive officer must provide the person or persons charged with a contravention of the Guild rules with a notice in writing requiring the person or persons to appear before the Discipline Committee.

15.3.7 The notice required under clause 15.3.6 must include:

(a) details of the alleged contravention of the Guild rules;
(b) reference to the particular Guild rules allegedly contravened;
(c) the date, time and place that the person or persons are required to appear before the Discipline Committee; and
(d) a copy of the part of these Regulations concerning the Discipline Committee.

15.3.8 A person or persons served with a notice under clause 15.3.6 will attend and appear before the Discipline Committee as required or submit a written explanation in relation to the charges of contravention of the Guild rules to the executive officer of the Discipline Committee.

15.3.9 The Discipline Committee may proceed with the investigation notwithstanding the non-attendance of the person or persons charged if the Discipline Committee is satisfied that the notice to attend was duly served on the relevant person or persons.
15.3.10 The executive officer of the Discipline Committee may, by not less than four-working days notice in writing, require any ordinary member or associate member to attend at a stated time before the Discipline Committee for the purposes of providing evidence.

15.3.11 An ordinary member or associate member served with a notice under clause 15.3.10.

15.3.12 All persons required to appear before the Discipline Committee are allowed representation.

15.3.13 The Discipline Committee may admit evidence by declaration made in the form provided by Regulation 25.1 and 26.1.2.

15.3.14 The Discipline Committee may permit persons who are not ordinary members or associate members to provide evidence to the Discipline Committee.

15.3.15 The Discipline Committee may permit any group of ordinary members or associate members (or both) or any University society, required to appear before the Discipline Committee, to appear by a representative.

15.3.16 An ordinary member or associate member whose conduct, in the opinion of the Discipline Committee, constitutes contempt of the Discipline Committee, is liable to the penalties applicable under clause 16.2.1.

15.3.17 Where a person is charged with persistent breaches of Guild Rules or has not paid any fine imposed by the Discipline Committee within the prescribed period, the Discipline Committee may recommend to the Guild Council that action be taken by the Guild Council in the terms of Regulation 16.2.2.

15.3.18 The Discipline Committee may exclude the person or persons concerned from the buildings occupied by the Guild until the Guild Council meets to consider the recommendation of the Discipline Committee.

15.3.19 As soon as practicable after the Discipline Committee has reached a conclusion in relation to any particular investigation and made a decision in relation to penalties to be applied, the executive officer of the Discipline Committee will serve notice of the particulars of the conclusion and decision on the:
   (a) persons or University Society charged with contraventions of the Guild Rules; and
   (b) disciplinary officer, subsidiary council, Guild committee or University society that referred the matter to the Discipline Committee for investigation.

15.3.20 If the Discipline Committee has imposed a fine, the notice required under clause 15.3.19 must also inform the persons or University society on which the fine has been imposed of the right of appeal under clause 16.2.11 to 16.2.15 and Chapter 17 inclusive, and must provide a copy of the part of these Regulations relating to appeals.

16 DISCIPLINE PENALTIES

16.1 General Regulations

16.1.1 The chair of the Discipline Committee will submit a written report of the investigation to the Guild Council at the first Guild Council meeting after the Discipline Committee has made its decision.

16.1.2 The report will include:

(a) copies of all written declarations and other documentary evidence presented to the Discipline Committee;
(b) a summary of oral evidence presented to the Discipline Committee;
(c) particulars of the decision; and
(d) reasons for the decision.

16.1.3 Any member of the Discipline Committee may submit a dissenting report to the Guild Council.

16.1.4 The Guild Council is not able to vary or set aside any decision of the Discipline Committee unless an appeal is made by the relevant persons or University society.

16.2 Penalties

16.2.1 Except where otherwise expressly provided, an ordinary member or associate member who contravenes the Guild rules is liable to perform or pay (as relevant) the following fines:

(a) for a first offence, a fine not exceeding $40;
(b) for a subsequent offence of the same nature as a prior offence, a fine not exceeding $100;
(c) for a serious offence, or any third or subsequent offence, or for non-payment of a fine within the prescribed period, a fine not exceeding $200; or
(d) any other non-monetary punishment that the Discipline Committee deems fit.

16.2.2 Where a person has:

(a) committed a serious contravention,
(b) committed a third or subsequent contravention of Guild Rules, or
(c) not paid any fine imposed by the Discipline Committee within the prescribed period, the Guild Council, on recommendation of the Discipline Committee under clause 15.3.17, may in addition to any other penalty imposed in terms of clause 16.2.1:

(a) exclude the person for a period not exceeding one year from all buildings occupied by the Guild; or
(b) recommend to the Senate that the person be expelled from, suspended for a specified period from, or not readmitted to the University.

16.2.3 A penalty may be imposed collectively upon a group of members, associates or both, or upon a University society, if it is found that the individuals of the group or society were jointly and severally responsible for the offence or that the individual or individuals responsible belong to the group or society but cannot be identified.

16.2.4 Unless determined otherwise by the Appeals or Discipline Committees, any fines imposed for the contravention of any of the provisions included in the Guild Statute Book are paid within fourteen days.

16.2.5 An ordinary, associate or honorary life associate member of the Guild may—be disciplined in accordance with these Regulations if they are shown to have:

(a) persistently committed breaches of discipline or to have flouted the authority of the Guild Council or any duly appointed employee or officer of the Guild; or

(b) behaved within the precincts in a manner which discredits the Guild of Undergraduates.

16.2.6 A member or associate who makes a false statement, knowing it to be false or not believing it to be true, in any declaration made under these Regulations or in any disciplinary investigation before the Guild Council sitting as the Appeals or Discipline Committees, is liable to a fine not exceeding $50.00.

16.2.7 Members and associates giving evidence before any such Council or committee will be warned of the penalties that may be incurred for making false statements.

16.2.8 Notices relating to disciplinary investigations or appeals may be served personally or by registered post.

16.2.9 A notice served by registered post, addressed to the person to whom it is directed at their last known place of residence, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, may be presumed to have been received by them in the ordinary course of the post.

16.2.10 A notice served on the Secretary of a University society is sufficient notice to the society.

16.2.11 A disciplinary officer, council, committee or society who referred a matter for investigation, and the person, persons or society charged, may appeal to the Guild Council against any decision of the Discipline Committee made on the matter.

16.2.12 Notice of the appeal must be in writing setting out the grounds for the appeal and must reach the Secretary of the Guild within fourteen days after the notice of the decision to which the appeal applies was served on the appellant.

16.2.13 A copy of the notice must also be served within the fourteen days upon the other party or parties concerned.

16.2.14 The notice of appeal and its service under these Regulations is the responsibility of the appellant.

16.2.15 When notice of appeal is duly given, action on the decisions of the Guild Discipline Committee must be stayed.

17 GUILD COUNCIL SITTING AS THE APPEALS COMMITTEE

17.1 General Regulations

17.1.1 The Guild Council sits as an Appeals Committee, hereafter the Appeals Committee.

17.1.2 Members of the Guild Discipline Committee are excluded from membership of the Appeals Committee.

17.1.3 The Appeals Committee elects its own chair who acts as the executive.
17.1.4 The Secretary of the Guild will, as soon as convenient after an Appeals Committee is appointed, provide the executive officer of that committee with three copies of each of the following:

(a) the notice of appeal;
(b) the report of the Discipline Committee;
(c) the report, if any, of any dissenting member of the Discipline Committee; and
(d) any other documents relating to the matter.

17.1.5 The Secretary of the Guild will give the appellant and any other parties concerned at least seven days notice of the date and time for the consideration of the appeal.

17.1.6 The appellant and other parties concerned are entitled to appear personally and to be represented before the Appeals Committee.

17.1.7 The Appeals Committee, when considering an appeal, may permit the appellant and other parties concerned to appear, present a case or both in such a manner or form as the committee decides.

17.1.8 In accordance with 17.1.7, the executive officer will notify the appellant and other parties of any decisions taken.

17.1.9 The Secretary of the Guild, by not less than four working days notice in writing, may require any member or associate to give evidence to the Appeals Committee.

17.1.10 A member or associate served with such notice must attend as required.

17.1.11 The Appeals Committee may:

(a) admit evidence by declaration made under these Regulations;
(b) permit persons who are not members or associates to give evidence before it; and
(c) permit any group of members, associates or both or any University society required or entitled to appear before it to appear by a representative.

17.1.12 The Appeals Committee may confirm, reverse or vary any decision made by the Discipline Committee but may not impose penalties in excess of those authorised by these Regulations.

17.1.13 Decisions of the Appeals Committee are final and not subject to further appeal or review within the Guild.

18 FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

18.1 General Regulations

18.1.2 The Guild Council must maintain a core investment account to be known as the Guild Investment account.

18.1.3 The Guild Council must add amounts to the Guild Investment account from time to time as it sees fit.

24.3.6 All non-current records made by or in the custody of the following, must be lodged with the Guild Archivist:
   (a) subsidiary councils of the Guild;
   (b) departments of the Guild;
   (c) divisions of the Guild;
   (d) committees or councils of the Guild; and
   (e) registered University societies.

24.3.7 The Managing Director is responsible, with the advice of the Guild Archivist, for the maintenance of a system of records management and for ensuring that non-current Guild records are lodged with the Guild Archivist.

24.3.8 The Guild Executive must take all action necessary in the name of the Guild to recover any records or archives unlawfully removed from the Guild and/or to recover damages or compensation for unlawful removal or destruction of records or archives.

24.3.9 Archives, or the classes of archives, listed in the disposition schedule as archives which may be disposed of and any other archive which in the opinion of the Guild Archivist should not be preserved or which should not be preserved any longer must only be disposed of in accordance with the following:

(a) in the case of archives which are not included in the classes of archives which may be disposed of, or where the Guild Archivist is unsure as to whether the archive comes within the said classes in the disposition schedule:
   (i) the Guild Archivist must provide to the Guild Council via its Secretary, a list of recommended archives to be disposed of; and
   (ii) Guild Council must decide whether or not to approve the disposal of the archives.

24.3.10 The Guild Archivist may dispose of an archive which was a record of a registered University society by:
   (a) returning the archive to the registered University society; or
   (b) except where the society is no longer a registered University society, returning the archive to a former officer of the University society; or
   (c) if neither (a) or (b) apply, disposing of the archive according to these Regulations.

24.3.11 If the archive is not collected by the registered University society or its former officer within fourteen days of notification of its availability, the archive may be disposed of in accordance with these Regulations.

24.3.12 Archives that fall within the classes listed in the disposition schedule as archives which may be disposed of, or archives approved for disposal by Guild Council may, subject to Regulation 24.3.10 and 24.3.11, be disposed of by:
   (a) removing the archive to another place;
   (b) giving the archive to any group at the University involved in recycling paper; or
   (c) disposal as the Guild Archivist sees fit, provided the method of disposal does not contravene the confidentiality provisions of Regulation 24.3.14.

24.3.13 If a record that contains information, the disclosure or publication of which may be unlawful or may be in breach of any law, is lodged with the Guild Archivist, notification in writing of the possible unlawfulness or breach of the law contained in the archive must be forwarded to the Guild Archivist.

24.3.14 If the Guild Archivist or the Guild Executive or Guild Council is of the opinion that any record lodged, or being lodged, with the Guild Archivist:
   (a) contains information of a confidential or personal nature that should not be disclosed to the public: or
   (b) that the record is such that disclosure to the public would be in breach of any law, the Guild Archivist may, in accordance with Guild policy or any directions by Guild Council, restrict or grant limited access to the archive to any person who must observe the restrictions or conditions imposed.

24.3.15 Subject to the provisions of Regulation 24.3.14, and subject to any limitations or rules imposed by the Guild Archivist for the purpose of preserving, conserving and maintaining archives, access to the Guild Archives is available to the public for study, research, information and administrative purposes.
