Fixed Term Position Available

Guild Centenary Publication Editor

The UWA Student Guild has an exciting opportunity for an experienced editor to work with an enthusiastic team to produce a publication that captures the last 100 years of the Guild. In 2013 the Guild is celebrating its Centenary alongside UWA’s Centenary celebrations and we are looking for a dedicated editor to play a part in this significant occasion.

The successful applicant will need to demonstrate strong writing, editing and journalism skills as well as project management skills, be detail-oriented, have excellent copy-writing, editing and proof reading skills, meet tight budgetary constraints and have strong written and verbal communication skills. Knowledge of the UWA Student Guild and the University is essential.

Ideally the candidate will have a solid track record of journalism experience and at least two years in an editorial leadership role. A strong knowledge of print and digital content layout, and sub-editing is required, as is experience working Adobe Creative Suite version 5. The candidate must have the ability to work autonomously as well as working with committees.

The 11 month term starts in September and is a flexible working arrangement. The publication deadline is 1 June 2013. Position Honorarium is available on request.
